

A painterly illustration of a harbor scene. In the background, a row of colorful, multi-story buildings with various window styles and rooflines stretches across the frame. The colors range from deep blues and purples to warm oranges and reds. In the foreground, several sailboats are docked in a harbor, their masts and rigging visible against the water. The water is depicted with soft, blended colors, reflecting the light from the buildings and sky. The overall style is impressionistic and artistic, with visible brushstrokes and a rich, textured appearance.

NADIA CASCINI

TRANSFIGURING THE LANDSCAPE...

"THERE ARE MOMENTS, WHEN I PAINT, WHEN EVERYTHING IS DISSOLVED, THE NOISES DISAPPEAR, ONLY ME AND MY CANVAS REMAIN; IT TELLS ME WHAT TO DO, I OBEY."

ITALIAN ARTIST NADIA CASCINI DESCRIBES HERSELF AS A DAUGHTER OF TUSCANY. THE POETRY, LIGHT AND ATMOSPHERE OF THIS REGION, SO BELOVED OF ARTISTS FOR CENTURIES, IS EVER PRESENT IN HER DEEPLY PERSONAL WORK. HER PAINTINGS ARE DEFINED BY A GENEROSITY OF COLOUR AND SHAPE, A LOVE OF LANDSCAPE, ARCHITECTURE AND LIGHT, AND THE SEARCH FOR A HARMONIOUS DIALOGUE BETWEEN ALL THESE ELEMENTS TO CREATE A BALANCED AND EMOTIONALLY SATISFYING COMPOSITION.

WHEN SHE BEGAN TO TRAVEL FURTHER AFIELD TO PAINT, CASCINI BROUGHT THESE QUALITIES INTO HER INTERPRETATIONS OF TOWNS AND CITIES FROM VENICE AND LONDON TO ST. TROPEZ AND HONFLEUR.

After spending some time in Milan, Cascini returned home to Tuscany, to live in the beautiful old farmhouse she calls home. Built over a period of 700 years (beginning in the 13th century and completed in 1900) it is situated at the heart of an Etruscan settlement of great historical importance. Living here and loving it as she does means she has forged a strong connection with the history, culture and overwhelming beauty of the land and its features.
