

MR. BRAINWASH

BREAKING OUT

MR. BRAINWASH

The exhilarating and colourful new collection from street art megastar Mr. Brainwash is overflowing with cultural references, tropes, tributes and unashamedly joyful messages which reflect his life-affirming ethos.

VANDALISED ORIGINALS

Bringing together elements of Pop Art and Street Art, his work embodies the notions of movement, energy and spontaneity, liberating art from the traditional confines of the gallery and allowing it to invade our everyday lives. Whether this is on the side of a New York building or across the frame of a painting in a gallery, his message is clear; art should not be hemmed in by rules and regulations but should be allowed to overflow onto frames, walls, streets and beyond.
