For over forty years John Swannell has travelled the world photographing people and landscapes becoming one of the biggest names in British photography.

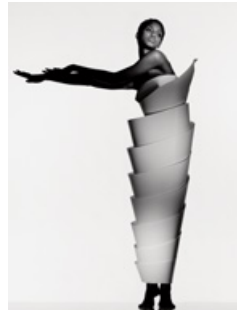

JOHN SWANNELL

FORTY YEARS ON

In this new exhibition John has carefully curated a selection of his favourite portraits, nudes and fashion photography from throughout his travels. This collection represents a retrospective on the artworks of an internationally renowned artist, now sought after by both press and public. Having been previously awarded Honors such as a Fellowship from the Royal Photographic Society, this year John has received an Honorary Doctorate of Letters from the University of Westminster. The exhibition focuses on iconic photographs including a commission by Diana, the late Princess of Wales together with her sons, Her Majesty the Queen celebrating her Golden Jubilee and HRH Prince Charles.
