Truth OR Dare?

We are delighted to present this spectacular new collection of exclusive originals alongside a range of highly desirable limited editions. Part nostalgic homage, part witty pastiche, Truth or Dare? revisits 1950s style pulp fiction book covers to make an ironic statement about art, literature and liberation. The collection comprises seven titles which create a guaranteed talking point with their amusing, deadpan or sometimes outrageous assertions. Each title is available in a choice of stylish formats, colours and sizes

Limited EDITIONS

By referencing the iconic typography, artwork style and colours of pulp fiction book covers, but replacing the titles with their own words, The Connor Brothers make a playful but provocative statement about modern life.

These sophisticated limited editions of just 75 are faithful to the smallest nuance and detail, retaining the vibrancy and immediacy of the original.

Hand-Coloured EDITIONS

SMALL

In keeping with The Connor Brothers' passion for authenticity, these seven exclusive editions have been created as high calibre giclée prints, each of which has then been meticulously hand-coloured in a rich and vivid palette. Every small but perfectly formed individual artwork is one of only 40, and their rarity coupled with their exquisite hand finishing renders them uniquely desirable collector's pieces.

THE CONNOR BROTHERS

Since their identity was revealed by the Telegraph over 10 years ago, The Connor Brothers have been stirring up the art world with their hard-hitting combination of retro design and contemporary satire. They are highly valued and outspoken supporters of countless social causes, collaborating with partners such as Noel Gallagher and Pussy Riot, and using their art to raise awareness and funds for CALM (the Campaign Against Living Miserably), the Teenage Cancer trust, and numerous homelessness and refugee charities. Their work has been included in such major collections as the V&A, the Omar Koch, Niarchos and Penguin collections, and Banksy's dystopian 'bemusement park' Dismaland.
