

INTRODUCING TOM BUTLER

TOM BUTLER'S MULTI-LAYERED COMPOSITIONS BLEND THE TRANSPARENT AND THE SOLID, THE LITERAL AND THE ABSTRACT ALLOWING HIM TO INTERPRET A FAMILIAR SCENE IN A UNIQUE AND SOMETIMES UNEXPECTED WAY.

His radiant mixed media collages evolve organically by their very nature, as they depend on the collage components that Butler has assembled. His style and process are unique, suggesting a different way to observe a world which is itself a layered tapestry of shapes, textures, colours and ideas.

Highly sophisticated, complex and imaginative, this major new collection reveals a different way of looking at the world. It includes a series of luminous abstract works in which Butler has explored an alternative path through the landscape, seeking an aesthetic balance between paint and printed matter.

“There were infinite directions that each piece could have taken along the way, meaning that the process was entirely intuitive”.
